

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The United States Marshal Service plays a vital role in our country's criminal justice system; and,

WHEREAS, Since there are but 93 U.S. Marshals nationwide, it is essential that each one be of impeccable character and that each maintain a demanding high level of professionalism; and,

WHEREAS, The job of U.S. Marshal is not as easy one. It is a challenging federal position that often involves long hours and can put a marshal in life-threatening situations; and,

WHEREAS, As an appointee of the President of the United States, Marshals deserve our respect and cooperation as they go about their day-to-day business; and,

WHEREAS, In South Dakota, our United States Marshal is Gene Abdallah, and we have him to thank for bringing the regional conference, as well as Marshals from as far away as Hawaii, Alaska, and New York, to South Dakota for the first time; and,

WHEREAS, We are proud of the work Gene Abdallah does for the U.S. Marshal Service and we are grateful for the cooperative hand he extends to other state, county, and local law enforcement officials; and,

WHEREAS, We are convinced that this fine work is indicative of the quality of Marshals nationwide. We appreciate the decision to hold the regional conference in the beautiful Black Hills:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 1, 1963, as

UNITED STATES MARSHAL DAY

In South Dakota.

ATTEST:

Alice Kuebler
ALICE KUEBLER, SECRETARY OF STATE
